DECISION

MAC/163309

PRELIMINARY RECITALS

Pursuant to a petition filed January 20, 2015, under Wis. Stat. § 49.497(1m)(a), to review a decision by the Public Assistance Collection Unit in regard to Medical Assistance, a hearing was held on February 19, 2015, at Madison, Wisconsin.

The issue for determination is whether the Public Assistance Collection Unit (PACU) can compel payment of a public assistance debt.

There appeared at that time and place the following persons:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of [REDACTED]. The petitioner was a previously a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. On February 14, 2014 the agency sent the petitioner a Medical Assistance (MA) overpayment notice. The notice stated that the petitioner was overpaid $1,682.80 in MA benefits under claim number [REDACTED]. A second notice stated that the petitioner was overpaid $1,878.71 in MA benefits under claim number [REDACTED]

3. On March 4, 2014 the agency mailed the petitioner a repayment agreement.
4. On June 3, 2014, July 2, 2014, and August 4, 2014 the agency mailed the petitioner dunning notices reminding her of the debt.
5. On November 13, 2014, the PACU sent petitioner an Order to Compel Payment of Liability.
6. The petitioner has not made any payments under either MA claim number, and is still liable for the total debt.
7. The petitioner has not entered into a repayment agreement with the agency.

DISCUSSION

Wis. Stat., §49.497(1m)(a) provides that if, after notice of incorrect payment is made, a recipient who is liable for an incorrect payment fails to repay the incorrect payment or enter into, or comply with, an agreement for repayment than the State of Wisconsin may bring an action to enforce the liability or may issue an order to compel payment of the liability. In this case the department has issued an order to compel payment of the liability. Petitioner can appeal, but according to the law the only issues that can be addressed are whether she paid off the overpayment, or whether she has entered into a repayment agreement and complied with it.

The petitioner appears to have filed this appeal to contest whether she owes the money at all. According to a Wisconsin statute that the Division of Hearings and Appeals must follow, I cannot reach the merits of the overpayment claim. The petitioner's opportunity to address those issues was in her original appeal, which she abandoned. I do not find the petitioner's testimony that she never received either the notice of hearing or the decision credible. Regardless, if the petitioner would like to address those issues, the petitioner would have to request a rehearing in that underlining case as I do not have any authority to address those issues.

The issues in a case such as this one are limited as described above. There is no dispute that the agency established an overpayment, which the petitioner failed to contest during her previous appeal. The petitioner did not enter into a repayment agreement, and still owes to the total amount of the MA overpayment under both claim numbers. Thus I must conclude that the PACU may compel payment of a public assistance debt.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The PACU can compel payment of a public assistance debt.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

That the petition is dismissed.

REQUEST FOR A REHEARING

You may request a rehearing if you think this decision is based on a serious mistake in the facts or the law or if you have found new evidence that would change the decision. Your request must be received within 20 days after the date of this decision. Late requests cannot be granted.

Send your request for rehearing in writing to the Division of Hearings and Appeals, 5005 University Avenue, Suite 201, Madison, WI 53705-5400 and to those identified in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST." Your rehearing request must explain what mistake the Administrative Law Judge made and why it is important or you must describe your new evidence and explain why you did not have it at your first hearing. If your request does not explain these things, it will be denied.

The process for requesting a rehearing may be found at Wis. Stat. § 227.49. A copy of the statutes may be found online or at your local library or courthouse.

APPEAL TO COURT

You may also appeal this decision to Circuit Court in the county where this action arose (Milwaukee County). Appeals must be filed with the Court and served either personally or by certified mail on the Secretary of the Department of Health Services, 1 West Wilson Street, Room 651, Madison, Wisconsin 53703, and on those identified in this decision as "PARTIES IN INTEREST" no more than 30 days after the date of this decision or 30 days after a denial of a timely rehearing (if you request one).

The process for Circuit Court Appeals may be found at Wis. Stat. §§ 227.52 and 227.53. A copy of the statutes may be found online or at your local library or courthouse.
